EVERY INDIVIDUAL NATURE HAS ITS OWN BEAUTY

EVERY PERSON HAS UNIQUE LIKES AND DISLIKES

UNIQUE HOPES AND DREAMS

ALL REFLECTING DIFFERENT PERSONALITIES

EACH WITH A PROPER AND PECULIAR CHARM

DIFFERENT PERSONALITIES MAKE
PEOPLE

ABOUT THEIR ROLE IN LIFE'S DRAMA

ALL

WITH

DIFFERENT IDEAS

SO IT IS IN THE WORLD AROUND US . . .

SO IT IS AT STI

AND THIS IS AS IT SHOULD BE.

LET EVERYONE

ENDEAVOR

TO

BE

WHAT

HE

WAS

MADE

LET EVERYONE
STEP
THE MUSIC
HIS OWN
DRUMMER

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

Do not depend upon teachers to educate you;
they are only educating themselves
through the errors they make in teaching you
In the end education, like happiness, is individual, and must come to us from life and from ourselves.

"THE NAILING OF THE HORSESHOE"

When hearts are young and pulses glowing,
 Love shares a secret worth the knowing.

Just nail a horseshoe high and you will see your every dream come true
 For luck will haste to linger near you
 Its magic spell to bless and cheer you.

Your slightest wish a sweet command,
 When love walks with you hand in hand.—O.U. (Doc) Porter

Teach your scholar to observe the phenomena of nature; you will soon arouse his curiosity, but if you would have it grow, do not be in too great a hurry to satisfy this curiosity. Put the problems before him and let him solve them himself. Let him know nothing because you have told him, but because he has learnt it for himself. Let him not be taught science, let him discover it.
